Ithaca-based soul singer and voice coach Elisa S. Keeler is hosting a workshop called “Freeing Your Voice” at St. Catherine's of Siena at 309 Siena Dr. Ithaca, NY on Saturday, October 5th from 10am-12:30pm With a focus on uplifting multicultural songs and spirituals, Keeler’s workshop for adults encourages physical and emotional well-being through singing and community building exercises. The workshop emphasizes the joyful nature of creative expression. In addition to leading healing and personal growth retreats at Light on the Hill Retreat Center, Keeler is the founder of the Music for Unity and Social Change Program for public schools. She has been leading voice and world music workshops since 2003. Formerly with the band Solstice, Keeler has performed with Sharon Jones and the Dap Kings and collaborated with Kevin Kinsella – formerly of John Brown’s Body. Keeler recently released an album called “Songs of the Earth: Multicultural Songs for the Circle,” which features several songs from the “Freeing Your Voice” workshop. Her new band Elisa and the YesMen will be performing at The Haunt on October 13th, opening for George Porter, Jr.
